FALL

Project Outreach Teaches Trust

Mixed emotions are common to new students at the beginning of the year. Project Outreach was designed to acquaint newcomers with the campus and promote friendship among classmates. Activities ranged from wall climbing to canoeing, and the day resulted in friendship and trust between the new arrivals. School spirit began to show its presence as everyone was eager to participate in some good clean fun!

Academic Enthusiasm

What is the classroom? As students, we are supposedly here for the activities that take place within it. Therefore the classroom is one of the more important (if not most important) places on campus.

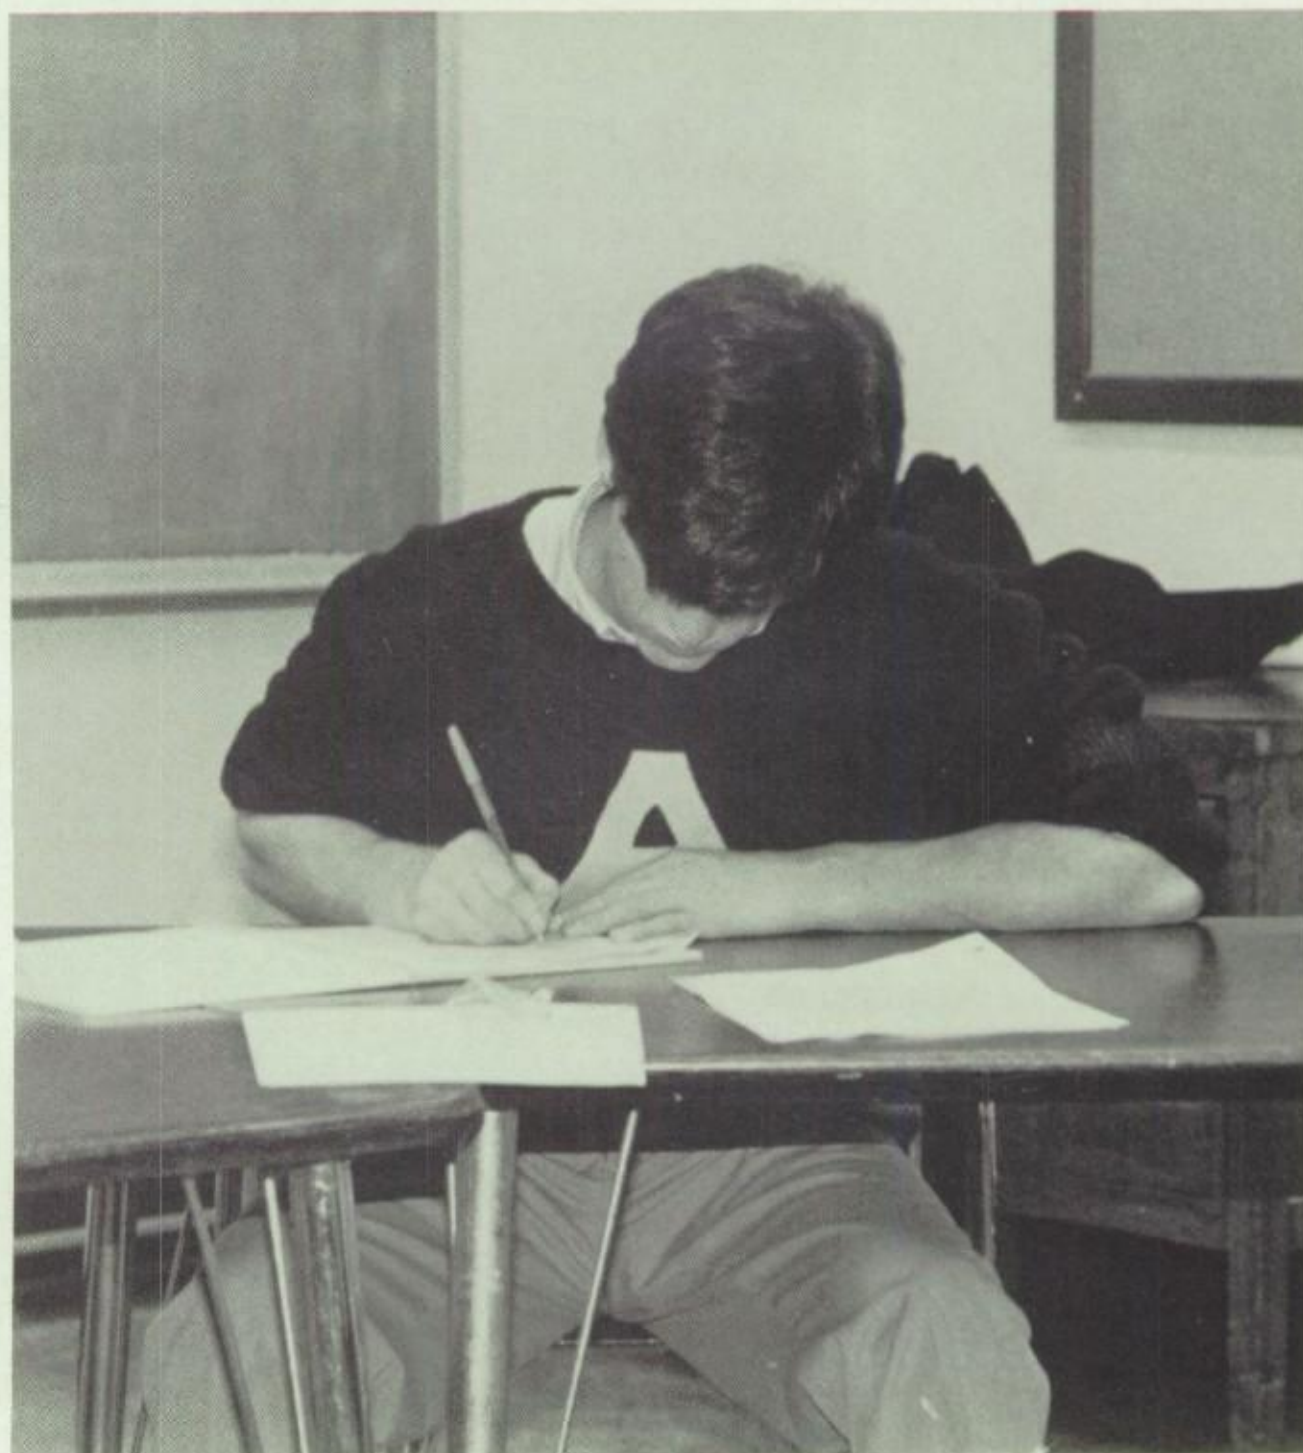

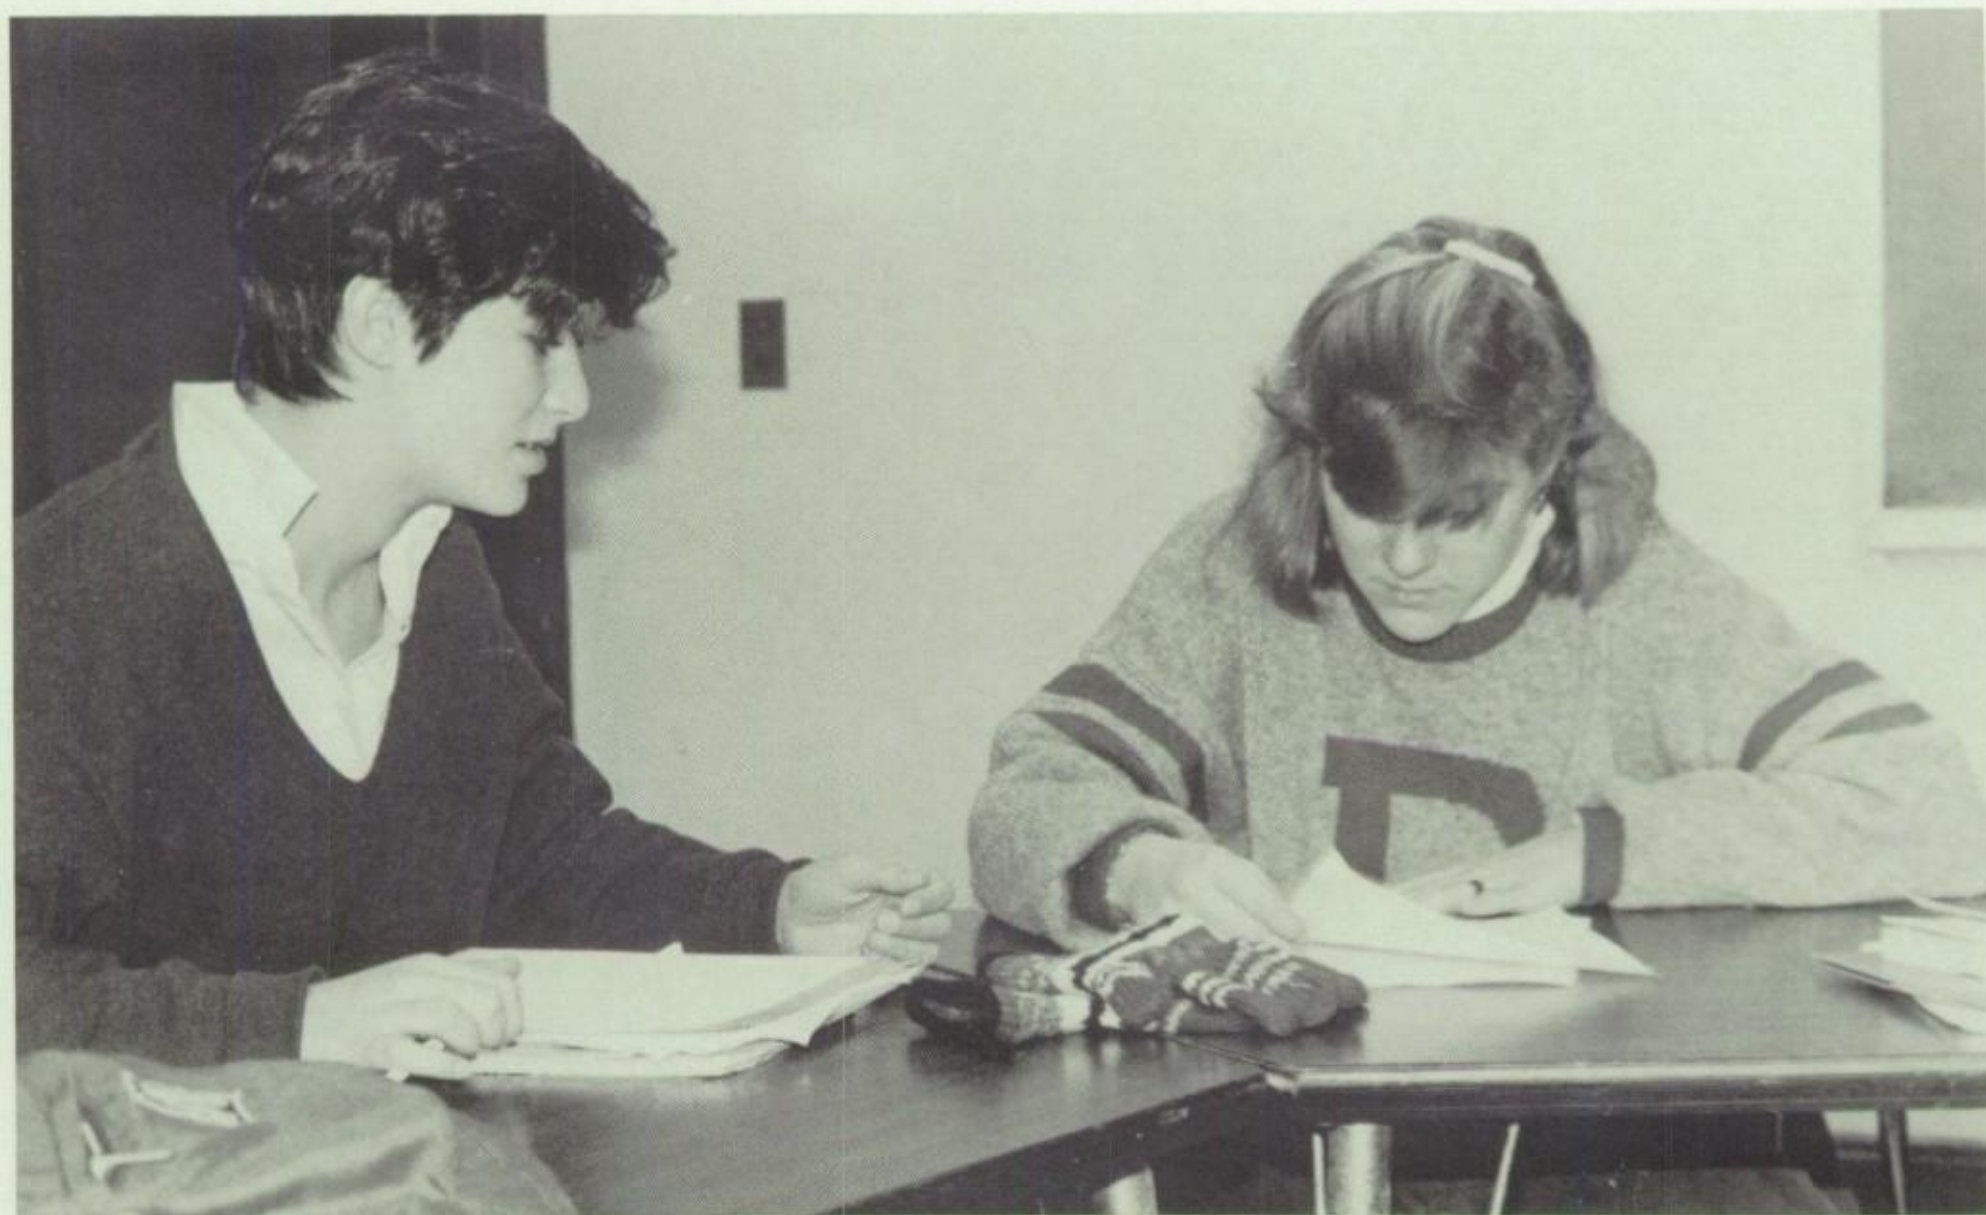

In May, during sixth and seventh period, the classroom is definitely not a favorite place to be. However, in the winter, when the wind and snow are out in full force, one becomes aware that it is better to be inside than out. The classroom then becomes a rather pleasant, comfortable place. When homework is done everything is caught up, the classroom is a constructive learning environment. The classroom has, however, a rather unique ability in that it can change with astonishing swiftness. The learning environment then becomes a torture chamber where the student must grovel and squirm when he or she gets behind.

The physical layout of the classroom itself never changes. Be it in Chaffee, Founders, or any place in between, the classroom is always four walls and a ceiling. In another — perhaps truer sense — the classroom is the students and the teachers who inhabit it every day. It is that kid over there busily engaged in tomorrow's homework. It is another kid staring out the window. A note being written about the weekend's plans. An athlete dreaming of the day's game. It is people learning, understanding, reviewing, socializing, and a myriad of other activities. It is also the teacher, who is up there trying to pull all these elements together to form an orderly, academic environment.

In short, the classroom is what we, as individuals, choose to make of it — nothing more and nothing less.

“So This is the Dining Room . . .”

This year the Loomis Chaffee Theater Associates performed the play “The Dining Room,” by A.R. Gurney, in England and Scotland. This parody on the WASP (White Anglo-Saxon Protestant) lifestyles of New Englanders, was performed at three European schools. Unfortunately, each school only had students in the third and fifth forms, which are the equivalent to American eighth and tenth grades. Although the students missed much of the comedy, they had a good time.

The company spent the majority of their spare time visiting cathedrals, museums, and other points of interest. Highlights of the trip included: shopping in punk infested areas and visiting English students’ homes. One cannot forget, however, partying in British night clubs like the Camden Palace!

Prior to the tour, the play was performed at LC and Hotchkiss. Performing on different stages created an air of novelty to each production. These changes tested the actors’ projection and the crew’s adaptability to unfamiliar staging. In general, the trip enhanced the company’s cultural outlook and performing ability.

Whose Socks Are These?!!?

Each year in November, the school begins to come alive in anticipation of a special day. For athletes, Kent Day marks the culmination of the season, and for supporters, a final chance to cheer for their favorite teams.

The pep rally gives athletes a chance to reflect on the fruits of their efforts through a long season, and the following Kent Day provides one last opportunity to test skills against a formidable rival. It is time to get "psyched," but perhaps more important, a time to support classmates as they prepare to face the challenging Kent teams.

The event is valuable, not only in terms of athletic preparation, but also as an impressive display of fellow support and school spirit which blossoms as the rally progresses. Many of the benefits of athletic competition are emphasized on this occasion as teams and fans alike join to rally against a common enemy in hopes that, together, the Pelicans will triumph on Kent Day.

If My Friends Could See Me Now!

This year's musical production at the NEO was Neil Simon's "Sweet Charity." Even to undertake such a production was an adventure in itself. The fact that it was done, and proved to be such a success, is a tribute to the dedication of those who work in the theater at Loomis.

Once again it was produced and directed by Dean Adams. He has a way of inspiring people with little experience to strive beyond themselves. His wife, Kristin Adams, choreographed the entire show. This was quite simply a lot of dancing, alot of very good, exciting, innovative dancing. Even the men gave a good performance, scared as they were of Kristin's wrath. Mark Gottschalk was musical director of a talented and good sounding orchestra.

Technically this was the most demanding show ever produced in the NEO theater. A full turntable was constructed on stage and scenes rolled on and off from both sides. The lighting fully complemented the technical achievement. However, what really made the show was the spirit and enthusiasm displayed by the cast. Everyone enjoyed himself and it showed on stage. The strong performances by the leads were balanced by a similarly talented chorus. "Sweet Charity" was a show full of color, vitality and exciting images. It enthralled Loomis audiences for four packed nights. Perhaps Dean Adams summed it up best with the words, "all those legs!"

A black and white photograph of a man and a young girl lying on a grassy field. The man is wearing a baseball cap and a dark jacket, and the girl is wearing a light-colored shirt. They are both looking down at something in the grass.

Your friend is your needs answered he is your field which you saw with love and reap with thanksgiving . . . For without words, in friendship, all thoughts, all desires, all expectations are born and shared, with joy that is unacclaimed. When you part from your friend, you grieve not; For that which you love most in him may be clearer in his absence, as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain.

Watcher of the skies, watcher of all
His is a world alone no world is his own,
He whom life can no longer surprise,
Raising his eyes beholds a planet unknown.
Creatures shaped this planet's soil,
Now their reign has come to an end,
Has life again destroyed life,
Do they play elsewhere, or do they know
More than their childhood games?

Continued Success for X-Country

A pair of well-seasoned captains, a quartet of competitive juniors, and a trio of fleet newcomers comprised the boys varsity cross country team this fall. Deep with talent, the team was led consistently by co-captain Peter Knight. Also Pat Hayden '86, Phil Sanderson '86, Mike Mantak '86, Taylor Hall '86, and Kevin Healy '85 each had the honor of being a race winner at least once. Co-captain Kermit Adams '85, John Perkins '86, and Rob Danos '87 supplemented the harrier team strength. Defeating nemesis Northfield Mt. Hermon at the Canterbury Invitational, winning the Williston Invitational, and having five runners under 17:00 minutes and eight with personal records on the home course in the last home meet highlighted the competitive season. With both grins and grimaces, the team was committed to the memory of the captains' successful lobbying for the initially forbidden flowered shorts, the frequent "losses" of said shorts, and the sporadic bouts of enough-to-make-a-grown-man-cry circuit training sessions.

Run for the Gold

Led by four seniors on the varsity squad, this year's cross-country team ran for an impressive season. After enduring the cold and the hills of pre-season, the team ran to a second-place finish at the Canterbury Invitational. This was followed by a streak of overwhelming victories against teams such as Choate, Conard H.S., and Kingswood. The runners demonstrated their superior ability at their own LC Invitational with Fiona Micheli setting a new course record of 19:44 on the 3.1 mile course. Then the girls successfully defended their first place finish at the Williston Invitational. After close, disappointing losses to powerhouses NMH and Hotchkiss, the team finished with an impressive 5th place at the New England Championships. Individual honors in the New Englands went to Sue Horst (10th place), Fiona (14th), and Maria Gluch (15th).

So, a season filled with excitement, victories, and heartbreaking losses comes to an end! Good luck to the crew returning next year!

With only five returning players, the 1984 girls' varsity field hockey team had a year of growth — learning how to play together successfully. They had a tough time matching last year's outstanding record, but managed an even 5-5-5 record. A disappointing aspect of the season was the inability of the forwards to score, especially during the second half of the games, but this team had an undying spirit and never gave up. The season culminated in an exciting victory over Kent, and one last chance to ring the bell for seniors Heather, Lisa, Anne, Sandy, Nina, Sally, and Jen. Everyone will remember our cheer, "Get a ripsaw . . .," and getting fat from Barbara and Beth's great baking.

Although the 1984 varsity football team had a hard season and a disappointing won-loss record, each player was a winner at heart. The opposing teams were for the most part, stronger, older, and more experienced. We, on the other hand, we had only a small core of seniors: Brian Parker, Greg Campbell, captain Luke Casey, and PG's Amore, Breen, and McFadden. Casey was the only returning starter. Thus, the team knew from the start that they would be in for a long season.

The team started the season with a very exciting game against cross-town rival Kingswood, but LC's inexperience led to a close 36-29 loss. As the season went on, the squad continued to play with heart against clearly overpowering opponents. Still, the underclassmen developed rapidly, particularly juniors Tim Craig and Stuart Couch, and 'super sophs' Niall Campbell, Joe McGowen, and Phil Davis.

Obviously the team was hurt by the "blow-out syndrome," culminating in the worst record for LC football in years. Nevertheless, the team never gave up, often doggedly coming back in the second half of many games. Moreover, the large part thanks to the efforts of Coach Eaton and his crew, the spirits remained good throughout the ordeal. Next year thirty players return (which includes fourteen starters). These players, along with the expected "new blood," provide at least a ray of hope for the future.

Business as Usual

This year's soccer team left pre-season practice with high expectations and much optimism. Rarely has there been a team so close. The team consisted of 9 returning lettermen, six men up from the J.V. squad, two P.S.s and a freshman. The season started off with a solid 7-0 win over a Berkshire team which Loomis had not beaten for several years. The team never looked back. Despite occasional bouts with inconsistent playing, the team ended the season with 9-3-2 record and qualified for the New England Prep School Championships. After an exciting first round 2-1 win over Nobles, the team met NMH in the semi-finals. Playing with vengeance in their eyes, the two teams fought it out for 60 minutes until NMH scored a goal with 8 minutes left. Intense play by the captains John Gichuru and Milton Gooding, as well as by Dave Walsh, Paul Ostberg and Jim Campbell, made this an outstanding season of soccer.

Determination Pays Off

Hard work and enthusiastic spirit were the trademarks of the 1984 Girls' Varsity Soccer team. We returned to pre-season remembering our disappointing 1983 record, but we soon realized that determination, a year's growth, and the addition of several outstanding new players would make a big difference. Looking back, we will always remember our courageous victory over the previously undefeated Kent team. This win elevated us to the post season tournament. Our players will always remember yellow banana days on Tuesday and Fridays, psyche push-ups, full-field wind sprints, and follow the leader.

Though Debbie, Carolyn, Kathy, Charity, and Vicky will be missed, the outstanding young players insure a promising future.

* Tournament Game

During a three game trip to Exeter the first weekend of the season, the team, led by four-year starters Jim Crombie, Tim Maricle, Mike Castleman, and Harri Bruni, beat Exeter for the first time. Senior Steve Mugford, who developed into a key player, was often called on to guard the opponent's toughest men; fellow senior Dave Bell, who was clearly the most improved player, and junior Ed Sharkansky, supported the seniors at Exeter and the two games at Brown University and at the Navy Tournament at Annapolis, Md. This exciting, successful, learning season drew to an end back at the Exeter tournament where the team took third. Throughout the season, the first substitutes Kevin Humphreys, Doug Hand, Scott Jackson, and Teresa Holland, could always be counted on to play an aggressive game. The seniors leave — but they leave behind the most knowledgeable underclass team ever. For the 1981 team, polo is "Done".

Basketball Upholds Winning Tradition

The questions about the quality of the basketball team started surfacing in late October and early November. Many supporters wondered if the team would be able to maintain its tradition of ten years without a losing season and nine invitations to the New England Championships. For the first time in five years, the team would be without a returning star capable of 20-30 points a game. These questions were answered in the Kingswood Tournament when Jim Dargati and Steve Frangione established themselves as an exciting duo capable of scoring 30-40 points in a 32 minute game.

As the season progressed it was obvious that this team had the ability to beat everyone on its schedule. The team's 14-7 record and invitation to the New England Championships is a testimonial to the hardwork and sacrifice of each team member.

Highlights of the season included a three point victory over Berkshire in the quarter finals of the New England Championships and a heart-stopping upset over previously undefeated Kingswood on the Pelicans' home court.

The Lady Pelicans achieved a 10-10 record this year, and concluded the season in fine style by winning the 1st Annual District IV Championship. The success of this year's team resulted through valuable contributions from each player rather than from any one star. Victory did not come easily, and through challenge, the team's members learned how to get ahead by hard work and unselfish play. Especially effective on the court were co-captains Carolyn Volpe and Sue Smoragiewicz, for their leadership and hustle gave direction to the developing team. Seniors Kathy Pinney and Caroline Cremisi also played vital roles especially toward the end of the season when the team came on strong in its last few league games and in the tournament.

This winter the boys' hockey team experienced a difficult but rewarding season. Time after time, the team's members pulled together to mount valiant attacks on the league's fiercest competition and thus, much of teams best play came in losing causes. The hard work the players put in, no matter what the task at hand, was repayed through success on the ice and growing sense of untiy and friendship among team members. In the end, the team compiled a record of 8-15-1, and learned how to compete at a challenging level of play.

Girls Skate to Victory

The 1984-85 Girls Ice Hockey Team finished at 12-5-1 and in third place in Western New England. The team scored 61 goals while allowing 34. Eight of the team's games were divided by one goal or less. The teams in Western New England play a very competitive brand of ice hockey.

The team was characterized by two things: first its ability to practice well and get down to the business of hard work; and, second, its blend of youth and experience. The ability to practice well can be attributed to the leadership of the seniors on this team. Four-year-player and captain, Sue Horn, was a leader from the start. She was the team's high scorer and was also its best defensive forward. Four-year-player and assistant captain, Debbie Manning, was the most aggressive and hustling forechecker. Her ability to play all out every day set a standard for younger players to emulate. Assistant captain Nina Pratt, Heather Clark and Dana Patenaude complimented Horn and Manning and lent stability to an otherwise youthful team.

Sophomore defenseman Judy Parish emerged as one of the two or three most effective players in New England. She was able to dominate entire teams with superior skating and stick skills. The defense included sophomore goalie Kate Keyes, who switched from wing after Christmas vacation; and two excellent freshman prospects, Marnie Fitzmaurice and Wyatt Lutsk. This group should have positive effects on the program for years to come!

This was a close-to-championship team. It earned its place among the top teams in New England. And its best times may lie in New England. And its best times may lie in a promising future!

Marksman Again on Target

This was the greatest year ever for the varsity rifle team — the team pushed its winning streak to 50 consecutive victories, marking its fifth complete season with no losses or ties.

This is really remarkable because we started the year with just four returning members, only one with more than a single season of shooting. Half the team was brand-new and the other half was relatively inexperienced. This year's youth promises excellence in the future.

Spirit on Slopes

Sometimes a record cannot tell the whole story — a story of a group of individuals striving to achieve new heights in athletic competition. Our team has many fine skiers, but despite our depth we were not able to pull off many victories this season. Last season, six of our eight starters graduated and our first couple of races showed the effects of this loss and the importance of experience. Falls and disqualifications were our worst enemies as they cut us off from victories against teams we might well have beaten. As the season progressed, everyone began to ski better and more consistently.

Our record does not reveal one other thing: team spirit. Skiing demands quickness and strength. Despite some discouraging moments, team members went to practices and challenged themselves to the best of their abilities on every run and at every gate. Every member kept his positive attitude and helped establish a sense of unity amongst the entire team throughout the long and difficult season. If our mental and physical conditioning can prevail, the future of the ski team looks to be a bright one.

This year was a bittersweet season for the Men's Varsity Swim Team. We began the season with a formidable win over Fairfield Prep, our first victory over them in five years. We continued with a respectable dual meet record of 7-4, including losses to powerhouses Deerfield Academy and the Peddie School.

We have always been a team which has aimed for the New England Championships, and this year was no exception. We were faced with the dilemma of possibly sacrificing our State title and perfect record against Choate Rosemary Hall, and arch rival, for our philosophy of peaking at the New Englands. Needless to say, we stuck to our guns and were defeated by a shaved and tapered Choate squad during the regular season and again at the States. However, true to our philosophy, we had an absolutely awesome New England Championships, where every swimmer swam his personal best. Of course, as a natural consequence, we placed third behind Deerfield and Exeter, while being ahead of Choate in the final standings.

This year's crew of six four-year Varsity Seniors — Dave, Harv, Mike, Jimbo, Tim, and Mugs — would like to thank coaches Mr. Seebeck and Mr. Hartman for a superb season; we also wish best of luck to the Loomis Chaffee swim teams of the future.

We're So Excited

The season for Girls' Varsity Swimming was filled with many highlights. One of these was the New England record for the 200 medley relay — Jill, Misi, Teresa, and Sara — better known as the “deadly medley”; some others were Teresa’s New England record in the butterfly and Jill’s pool record in the backstroke which broke one of the oldest records on the board.

Not only were there many exciting races and best times, but also there were many climactic moments which our team is known for. Our spirit peaked at the New England Championships when, as we were warming up in front of the stand filled with spectators, our Mens' team walked in. They caused an instantaneous reaction from our team with their support, fully dramatized our “We’re So Excited” casps. Our adrenalin flowed rapidly throughout the meet and raced continually through the night, giving us an exciting second place finish. Our team’s strength and ability to pull itself together are what makes the hours of painful practice in the cold LC pool all worthwhile. Our unity and success are a credit to everyone, including both coaches and the managers. Seniors Karen Mabee, Lisa Ferdinand, Barbara Pizzoferrato, Susan Galley, and Sally Loomis will always remember these “man-iac” moments and warm times with friends as some of their best times at LC.

11-1 Volleyball Unbelievable!

3-2-1 ... This is us ... slow starts, but awesome under pressure ... Ice cream — bribery? ... Gosh Gumbey ... A suggestion? ... Let me be angry! ... Lassie ... Patience ... Prince ... Thumbs-up! ... Running, anyone? ... New Knees ... Irish Setter ... The Johnson & Johnson award winners ... Why Seattle? We'll miss you!

What an excellent season! 11-1, and we deserve it. Terrific Coaching from Mrs. Stewart and Luis was vital to our success. Even more important was our own desire to work hard and give 200 percent on the court. Volleyball just maybe our sixth sense and this showed in our victories over Choate and Taft. Hotchkiss? We won one game. Almost undefeated! Thanks for a special season! Marcy and Melanie.

Wrestling has best showing in years! After finishing a 9-3 season with a second place in the State Tournament, the LC wrestling team shows that hard work and determination pay off. Head coach Bill Eaton and coach Greg Buckles led the team to a long-awaited win over Loomis Chaffee's arch rival, Suffield Academy. Special appreciation goes to captains Kermit Adams, a coach's award winner, and Peter Buchman, the most valuable wrestler. Aaron Amore finished the season with an impressive 11-1 record, and Erwin Tarr, Willy Gordon, Andy Albert, Andy Tease, and Gerg Moore also made strong contributions. Eric Berman received the second coach's award for his achievement and dedication to the sport. And last but not least, Thanks goes to Amanda Higgins and Elle Grace. We couldn't have managed without you!

Other notable performances were given by wrestlers who went on to finish strong seasons with places in the State Tournament.

Beebe's Final Season Strong One

After a memorable trip to Florida in the Spring, the regular season began at Trinity-Pawling. The team did not do as well as expected, but they did have big wins over Hotchkiss and Avon Old Farms, and they won six of seven games in mid-season play. They lost a couple of one-run games due to errors that haunted them throughout the season. The Canadian flag, hung on the left field fence, became a landmark for home games, and it gave The Canadian Connection of Barry Dameshek and Mitch Goldstein a target to aim for while at the plate. The year was highlighted by Paul "Ozzie" Ostberg's hitting, as he broke the school record for hits (42) and batting average (.568). Keith O'Brien broke the home run record with five, including two in a game against Hotchkiss. Ron Lewis showed his "wheels" with great coverage in center field, and Allyn Martin and Matt Stevens performed consistently well on the mound.

Golf Builds for Future

Frustration marked the 1985 golf season. When drives straightened, putting would falter and the team's members had to work continuously to overcome this inconsistency. Still, the season was not without value, as the golfers met with enough success to preview a winning future. Through the leadership of Josh Pirozzolo and Mark Sienkiewicz, the team's youth learned what is needed to succeed in a competitive league.

Highlights of the season included the team's victory over Hopkins at the Yale Golf Course, and participation in the second Loomis Chaffee Invitational in memory of Steve Bader.

Avon, K-O, Hotchkiss Fall to Laxme

Inspired and guided by co-captains Dean Charpentier and John Gichuru, both three-year varsity players, this young team far surpassed the pre-season predictions by achieving a 9-6 record, which included three very significant victories — 6-5 over Avon Old Farms, the first since 1978, a 16-7 win over Kingswood Oxford, the first since 1971, and a 7-5 upset of a very strong Hotchkiss game in the season's finale here on the Island.

With only a few experienced players back from last year's very successful team — Matt Cleary and Dean Charpentier at defense and John Gichuru, Phil Keating, Dennis O'Connor and Chris Robinson at midfield, and Milton Gooding at attack — this team had to begin with the fundamentals of the game. The improvement was impressive, and a testimony to the dedication of the team. And proof that enormous commitment and very hard work really does pay off came in the final game of the season. Against a highly-rated Hotchkiss team, the Pelicans played a nearly flawless game and won, 7-5. A great team victory with every player giving his best performance of the season.

With only five returning letter winners and only three seniors with varsity experience, girls' varsity lacrosse had a lot to learn. The team did learn, and the development that took place was a tribute to the commitment and determination of its members. Superior physical conditioning was a team goal and proved to be a key ingredient during outstanding wins over Kingswood and Choate.

The finest characteristic of this team was its desire to improve. The players were not content with "yesterday's performance," but continued to work toward the future — an attitude many teams strive for but few can attain.

The season will be remembered by flashbacks of key interceptions, quick passing combinations, outstanding double-teams, and a tremendous record of 12 wins and 4 losses.

After a difficult first half of the season, the girl softball team pulled together and ended successfully. The players adapted well to a coaching change and committed themselves to working harder than ever. This dedication was rewarded through victories over Miss Porter's, Williston and the previously undefeated Choate. Seniors Caroline Cremisi, Alison Hancock, Abby Abbott, Kathy Pinney and Dana Patenaude led the team through their talent, energy and enthusiasm.

Young Team Shocks Opponents

Follansbee (coach), Wice, Rush, S., Thompson, Polese, Struthers (capt), Cundey, Rush, M., Lammey, du Boef

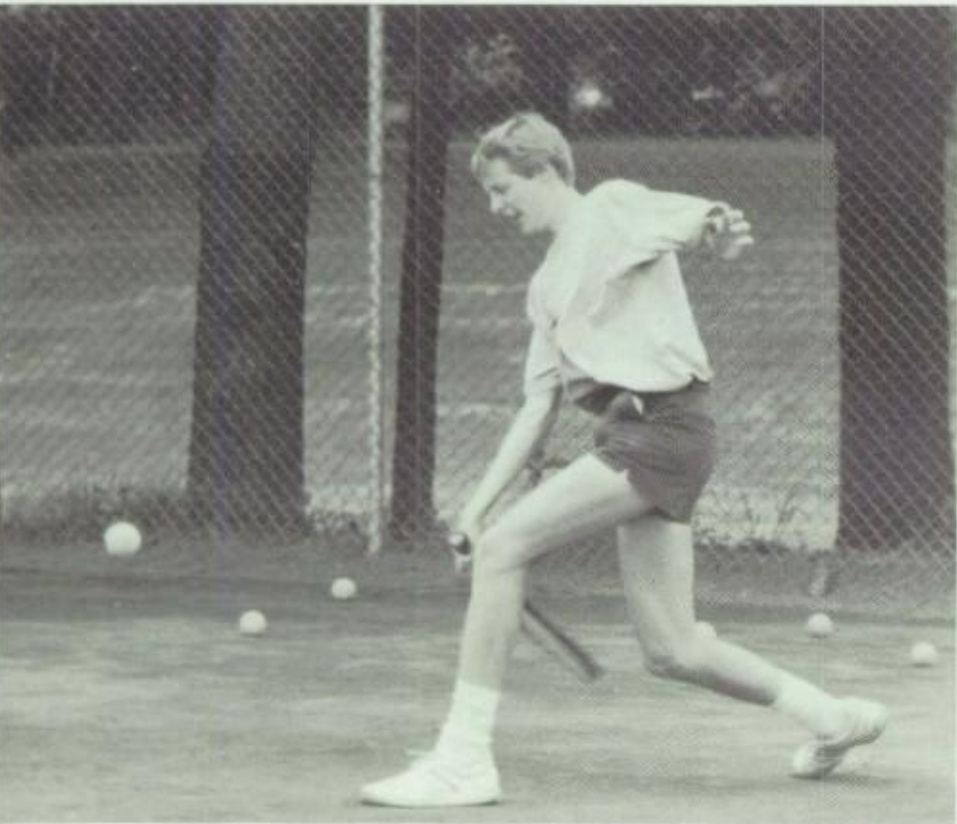

As a result of exceptional depth, this year's team finished up with a 12-4 record and a first-time win over Choate. The best part of the season and most fun to watch, was the melding together of the individuals. A new PG, two seniors, three juniors, a sophomore and two freshmen ribbed each other unmercifully on the practice court and in the van, but during matches they supported each other wonderfully. Some memorable moments: Brian Thompson's breakdancing on the court during drills and his witty one liners; Todd duBoef's humor and gusty play at Deerfield and the Hotchkiss Tourney; Dave Cundey's friends; Jim "Big Boy" Polese's crushed overheads; Bob Lammey's wonderful hair with his walkman headset on; Mark Rush's grunts; Stephen Rush's confidence; Bobby Wice's percentage and Tim Struthers' display of dignity and class.

With the addition of Mr. Follansbee as head coach this year, the team looks forward to further successes as they attempt to knock off Hotchkiss and K-O next year.

Girls' Tennis Satisfied

Although this year was a building year, it proved to be very beneficial to the team. For most teams the goal is to win every competition; although this was fairly impractical goal for us, we learned how to adjust our goals. Against Hotchkiss, Kingswood, and Kent, some of our harder teams, we tried to play our best and win a fair amount of the games. Sue Smoragiewicz went three sets with Kingswood's undefeated number one player. Polly Pearce, Val Van Vleck, Lisa Weinberg, and Margie Butler gave the undefeated team some strong competition. Our team was rather satisfied with the three decisive wins we had over Hopkins, Williston, and Pomfret. The enthusiasm and good sportsmanship of the players often compensated for some disappointing losses. The new team members, singles player Connie Clayton, and doubles players Lori Tan, Kim Lessow, Sara Courtemanche, and Tina Perez, along with returning players Laura Perl, Hillary Meshken, Val, and Margie should provide good depth for next year's team. Miss Hirtle provided good tips and suggestions, and in turn, each player on the team improved impressively over the season. Drawing top seeded players at the end-of-the-year Kent Tourney knocked us out early; but again, the fact that we stuck it out made this year's team proud of themselves.

Distance Runners Carry Team

Hall, Michaels (capt), Reynolds, Hayden, Danos, DelFavero, Scott, Spencer (capt), Sanderson, Miller, First, Moore, Couch, Riley, Mayo, Breen, Knight (capt), Perkins, Tease

This year, the boys' track team once again proved to be a formidable opponent. Mr. Joffray's weight men were not as strong as in previous years, but showed potential for the future. Andy Tease and Joe Breen were the force behind the shot, Bill Burwell in the javelin, and Bill Del Favero and Steve Michaels in the hammer. Senior Marc Spencer competed strongly in both the high jump and the hurdles. Robert Scott and Shawn Rouse were tough in the triple jump. In the 400 meter dash, Rich First was the runner to beat. Ms. Zimmer's long distance runners, led by senior Peter Knight, carried the team early on and stayed strong throughout the season.

The highlight of the girls' track season was our long awaited victory over Northfield Mount Hermon. The key to our success stemmed from our talented and cohesive team whose members improved greatly over the season. The team consisted mainly of new, inexperienced runners and throwers, such as Valarie Reed, Rika Poor, and Melanie Clark, who grew into strong competitors during the season from the leadership and guidance of the senior captains. The veteran coaches, Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. Eaton, and new coaches, Miss Jaeger and Mr. Schurman, also offered their expertise in their individual fields. Although the team did not place as well as expected at the New England Championships, it returned with nine individuals placing in their events, which is an impressive accomplishment.

Our Scotland Adventure: Kennedy — 12 hrs! Our lives in the capable hands of Capt. Juan Lopez of Arrow Air. Sugar attacks, Bluebells, pork, the mini-bus, babes, composing songs, pork, sleazy Italians, babes, pork. Max — our resident gargoyle, and the moving pillar. Kris wants to kiss his stomach AGAIN. And that growling! I tell ya, what a bahgin! It's a riot — a quiet riot! Our own tower — 93 steps up! Riding — no, we're not French, why? Us? — innocent?!

Florida: Allouette, Drew & Stu, Yaz, somebody, nightmare, mimose, picnic table dancing, the Gap Guy, Scan.

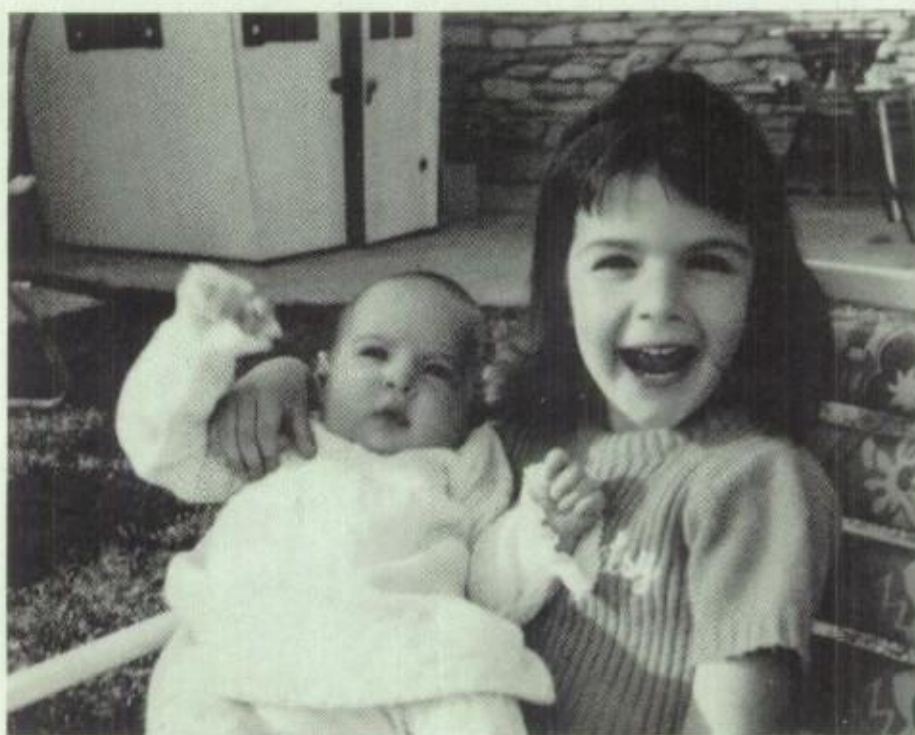

Springfield: Friday Week 1 — Cruise 91! Full moon. Anti-facial hair. Tori, Austen, Cy, and Karen.

Other Stuff: CAW!!! Beth: fifi-fufu! Amy — "I wanna play the drums! Mindy & her rats. Barbara — the artful dodger! Mead's gold feet and Diet Pepsi! Gratuitous. Focus! Kacy — oooh, ahhh, oooh! Bomb "the Beach". Persistent violins. Trinity weekends. Terrozing mall rats & creating scenes. New Britain — I can see the highway, but how the HECK do we get there?! Dinner at Finast Super Center. Cocktail parties — we actually look civil! — picnics & hoedowns with rubber fondue. U2 '85 — Bono and the banner! Montreal babe. Food Fest. Club lax, Club Tennis — in hysterics. Adventures in Higgins & Siesta. Flea markets and thrift shops — thank you Amvets! Our faithful pets — the fwappity fwaps! Beth & Mike?! Sally & Andrew — the happy couple. Covert. Dean's Monitor Secret Patrol Squad — duh, duh, duh . . . Daah!

This isn't goodbye, it's just see ya later!

"You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift. You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong. You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer. You cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred. You cannot help the poor by discouraging the rich. You cannot establish sound security on borrowed money. You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn. You cannot build character and courage by taking away a man's initiative and independence, and finally you cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

Let us not think that our problems are novel or insuperable. Let us learn from the past — but also let us look to the future with courage and initiative.

With Best Wishes to the Class of 1985

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Gilbert

Now A Few Words From Our Advisor . . .

Producing a quality yearbook is a tremendous amount of work.

This year's book contains over 2,000 photographs and more than 10,000 words. The cover and endsheets were completely redesigned. A "senior superlatives" page was introduced. Sixteen pages of color began the book — another first. Plus so much behind the scenes work: 702 letters to parents, ads to be secured, 200 mailing labels for seniors to be typed, and on and on.

Fully 35 students put THE CONFLUENCE together this year. They were led (in every sense of the verb) by editors-in-chief Steve Paul and Sara Lazar. Lump: a picture of organization, energy, and effectiveness, ever-patient with the rookie advisor. Sara: quietly competent, (nearly) always cheerful, a leader by example . . . Tim S. our ILM man and photographer extraordinaire . . . Sarah L. and Kristin J. slaving away on layouts . . . Matt C. in charge of all the copy . . . Heather C. and Kermit A. putting sports together, redoubling their efforts after Pieter B. took a sabbatical . . . Brian M. our businessman, soon followed by Adam P. and froshperson Becky C . . .

Maria G. and Matt B. doing the huge, 100-page senior section . . . Tina P. sharing her multitudinous talents with both us and the LOG . . . Peter H. conscientiously doing everything from layouts to picture-taking . . . Kathy D. and Rachael S. writing and typing articles . . . Damian R., a whiz with a camera . . . Laura P., Margie B., Carolyn W., Suzanna S. — all juniors "on call" when extra help was needed . . . Plus a bevy of hard-working sophomores, our book's editors of the future: Seth R., Jon B., Jason B., John B., Diana R., and the four Davids — David S., David C., David G., David A . . . And very part-timers Marc S., Geoff B., and Jon P.

To these people (as well as photographer Bob Snets of "the Fox" and ever-helpful publisher's rep Joe Donovan) the advisor says "THANKS!"

From the Editor's Desk . . .

Of all my experiences at LC, none will be more remembered than editing the yearbook (for two years!). What began as pleasant pastime evolved into an all-consuming passion. Yet, despite all the trials and tribulations, it has been a labor of love. For this I want to thank many people, among whom would most certainly include:

Grim: who patiently showed me the ropes . . .

Mr. P: who has no taste (!) but who is a great organizer, motivator, and friend.

Sara Lazar: a delight to know and work with.

Sarah Lutz: a savior because of her dedication and undying efforts.

Tim Struthers: for his great photographs, incredible organizational ability, and capacity for tolerating me.

Heather Clark: for all her hard work, especially when the going got tough.

Matt Cleary: a superb job of "copying" in his rookie season on the yearbook.

Becky Clark: for taking on a major responsibility and doing the job well.

Brian MacSwain and Pieter Boelhouwer: like sex, they were good while they lasted.

Jon Prince: blurbs . . . Thanks.

To Peter, Matt, and Mr. P., good luck next year! And to the rest of the LC community, I hope you enjoy this book!
